Purpose of this document:

- This document announces the introduction of new EPROM kits and spare part numbers for the different generator EPROMS in the DX-D 100 / 100 Wireless.
- It lists the new additional spare parts (kits).
- It provides service engineers with all necessary information regarding the new spare part numbers.

1 Introduction/purpose

IMPORTANT:

These spare parts are exclusively applicable for DX-D 100 and DX-D 100 Wireless solutions!

Until now, U24 and U5 generator EPROMS have been provided serial number-dependent. Therefore it was not possible to build up stock.

In order to be more flexible, especially to decrease delivery time and machine down times at customer sites, additional spare part numbers have been created.

With these new spare part numbers, there is no dependence on generator serial numbers anymore. The last digit of the new spare part numbers also reflect the firmware revision e.g. SC+A521071-01.

Each of the kits contains one U24 EPROM and one U5 EPROM.

NOTE:

The current spare part numbers for

- U5 EPROM SC+SOFT-HT and
- U24 EPROM SC+SOFT-ATP are still available in parallel.

If these are ordered, the generator serial number MUST be referenced. These parts also have a longer delivery time.

2 Prerequisites

NOTE:

Identify the generator kW and whether DAP option is needed or not.

These values have to be known from the device's history or the installation report, or the technician has to read them from the device.
